

“WHAT FUN TO BE A SOLDIER”

TO ALL KIDS

Sure it's fun to be a soldier!

Oh it's fun, fun, fun.

To hike with other brave GI's

In easygoing army boots.

To carry along a 60 pound pack,

To a right and ready camp!

Fun? Sure it's fun,

Just the finest ever son!

Yes, it's fun to be a soldier!

Oh, it's fun, fun, fun.

To loaf along a level road

Beneath a cloudless sun,

Or fields of golden grain,

Kept cool by puffs

Of wind and rain.

And sleep, sleep, sleep,

While the stay at homes weep!

Oh it's fun to be a soldier

Oh it's fun, fun, fun.

Just the Finest ever son!
To catch the damned German

And get him on the run.

To here and there, blow off a head,

With a burst of rifle lead.

To bayonet a foolish Kraut

At hide and seek,

In ditch and smoke.

To shoot, shoot, shoot

Till they got no legs to scoot!

Fun? Sure it's fun,

The finest ever son!

God it's fun to be a soldier!

Oh it's fun, fun, fun.

To lie out still and easy

When your day's sport is done.

With not a thing to worry for,

Nor anything to hurry for,

Not hungry, thirsty, tired, but

A hero much admired.

Just dead, dead, dead

Like Jack and Bill and Fred!

Fun? Sure it's fun,

Just the finest ever son!
